The
JOSHUA P. STUCKY
FAMILY RECORD

1855-1952

Preface

A GENEALOGY is really a record of God's revelation and love. This fact is also evident in the Joshua P. Stucky Family Record. Beginning small, like a mustard seed, with Grandfather Joshua P. and Grandmother Freni, our family has grown to remarkable proportions, until today, there are nearly one hundred living descendants. There are many things for which we ought to be thankful and the heritage of a good family name is one of these.

Genealogies, being largely statistical, are often thought of as dry and uninteresting. This will not be the case if we remember that these names are suggestive symbols representing persons of various sizes, ages, and periods of time, but all of them God's children. As we reflect on these names we ought to try and recall our contacts with these individuals. Perhaps, our memory will enable us to recall some words, or facial expressions, or experiences, and as we mirror these, we will recall the personality suggested by the name, and thus breathe life into this genealogy. As we do this, we will find that many of these individuals have had their trials and temptations, their defeats and victories, their periods of strength and weakness and their moments of joy and sadness. Behind each name, therefore, there is a biography of a human personality—a child of God.

And, since this is the family record of Joshua P. Stucky, father, grand-father and great-grandfather, to many of us, it would be well to recall what towers of strength he, and grand-mother, were in the spiritual realm. "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and its righteousness," was the controlling motive of their lives, and ought without question to be the central motive of all their descendants.

"Other Foundation can no man lay, than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."—1 Cor. 3:11
